* A three card reading

Now that you know how to pick an angel card lets move on to a three card reading. The intention of this is to be able to receive insight and guidance about the past, present and future. Most people want to know about their future, but it is also important to realise how your past can still have an affect on the present and the future.

The best thing that could happen from this reading is that you learn from the cards and allow them to give you the direction you need to live your best life in the present moment. The following steps will help to do this:

- ★ Ask the angels to surround you in their light, love and energy.
- ★ Hold the deck and ask for the angels' help and guidance about your past, present and future.
- ★ Spread the cards on the table. Then breathe deeply and ask the angels for their help to pick the cards.
- ★ The first card is about the past. Pick your card and lay it face-up on the table.
- ★ The second card is about the present. Pick your card and place it to the right of the previous card.
- ★ The third card is about the future. Pick your card and place it to the right of the previous card.
- ★ All cards should be face-up.
- ★ Take a moment to look at the cards and ask the angels to guide you to the answers you are looking for. Listen, feel and ask for the clarity you need. If it is helpful, use the book that came with your cards for further insight until you are more familiar with them.

- ★ End the reading by thanking the angels for their assistance and request that they continue to guide you so that you can completely understand the significance of the reading.
- ★ Again, if some of the cards make no sense at that moment, make a note of them in your journal and review them later, and pay attention to the signs, coincidences and synchronicities that come along in the following days.
- ★ Each card shares a message about what you need to know.
- ★ Pay attention to the past card. This card shares information from your past that could help you heal or better your life in the here and now and the future.
- ★ Pay attention to the present card as it reveals what is happening to you now.
- ★ Pay attention to the future card as it is having a message about an opportunity or a healing that may happen in the near future.

Use this reading when you want to receive clarity or you need help understanding a current life situation. It will provide you with the insight you need to make better decisions, to take appropriate action or just to pay attention. Almost always you will finish your reading with a sense of peace and understanding.

It is really important to use discernment when you perform a card reading. If the cards don't feel right, or you really don't understand their significance or meaning, then reshuffle and ask the angels for help in picking new cards.

* Doing a reading for another

You can do readings for other people, but it is advisable that you become comfortable and adept at doing a reading for yourself first. Really become familiar with your cards, practice is the key. Every time you do a reading for your self you increase your knowledge about the angels and their messages. With this experience will come confidence and that is precisely what you to be able to facilitate an angel reading for someone else.

- ★ Explain what an angel reading is and how it can help them. Tell them that the angels' messages and guidance are always filled with positive thoughts, unconditional love and encouragement.
- ★ Ask permission to hold the person's hands. Place your hands face up because you are performing the reading. Ask the angels to surround you both in their light, love, protection and energy. Then breathe deeply and relax trusting that they will guide you.
- ★ Ask the person you are reading for to take a deep breath and as they exhale to let go of everything that has happened prior to the reading (do the same yourself).
- ★ Then ask them to take another breath and as they exhale to let go of everything that will happen after the reading. Then, together breathe in the present moment.
- ★ Then, either silently or aloud ask the angels to guide you to give the reading for the best benefit for them.
- ★ Release your hands. Then ask what kind of reading they want, giving them the options: one card, past, present, future or other different spreads.
- ★ Have the individual shuffle the cards (or you can if you prefer) and spread the cards on the table. Guide them to choose the number of cards needed for the reading.

- ★ Take a few moments to look at the cards. Ask the angels for help so that you can share in their wisdom and guidance for the individual you are doing the reading for. Listen, feel and ask for the clarity you need. If it is helpful, consult the book that came with the cards until you are totally familiar with them.

- ★ After you complete the reading ask the individual if they understand the message shared. If they appear confused about certain cards or messages, ask them to be open to the angels' guidance. Explain that they may not currently understand the message, but there is possibility that clarity will come in the following few days or near future.

- ★ Close the reading by giving thanks to the angels and ask them to continue to guide you and the other person.

- ★ Encourage the other person to be open to the miracles ahead for them and to pay attention to how the angels may try to get their attention.

It is important to remember that after you have done the reading, you need to disconnect from the energy of the other person. It was your intention to help them during the reading and now you need to release them to the angels. Imagine yourself removing a plug from its power point, just like unplugging a radio from electricity so no signal comes through. Trust that it is the best for both of you to release and let go.

It can be very rewarding to give a reading for another person, and share the messages from the angels. Many individuals have a wonderful sense of peace after a reading. A reading often reassures people that they are not alone and that the angels are watching over them, ready to help in any way possible.

Angel card readings can be used to gain insight into all areas of your life.

They can be a fun and empowering tool to help you receive messages of guidance. Another way to receive this guidance with the cards is to look at the images expressed on the cards. They can provide some valuable insight that you may not find in the words printed on them or in the book enclosed with the cards.

Angel card readings allow you to receive messages that may enlighten your life with more healing, joy, peace and protection. Be open and practice using the angel cards so that you can receive your messages of divine guidance and personal miracle.
